

OT 102 Study Guide (Exam II)
Job-Song of Songs

The exam period will be 1 ½ hours long. The exam covers the Bible reading, textbook and other readings, and class lectures and discussions. The exam consists of 100 points, and its format is primarily objective. Below are some guidelines and sample questions. A good concordance, as well as a good Bible dictionary or encyclopedia, will help in studying for the exam.

I. Essay Question(s). There will be one or more short essay questions, in which you will discuss some general themes or ideas covered in the course. Examples might include the following: Discuss the similarities and differences between descriptive and declarative praise; Define and discuss wisdom, including which books (Biblical and extra-Biblical) belong to which categories of wisdom; Discuss the central message of the book of Job, with examples.

*II. Identification. In one sentence or less, identify the following person, place, event, doctrine, or phenomenon. (These are representative examples of what could appear on the test, but this list is not necessarily exhaustive.)

1. Megillot	16. “Young Wisdom”
2. Sons of Korah	17. Lemuel
3. Assurance of being heard	18. “A” is so, and, what’s more, “B” is so
4. Elihu	19. Call to praise
5. Reflective Wisdom	20. “Babylonian Theodicy”
6. Midrash on the Psalms	21. Robert Lowth
7. Asaph	22. Hermann Gunkel
8. Shepherd Hypothesis	23. Hymn
9. Songs of Ascents	24. David
10. Qohelet	25. maskil
11. Antithetic(al)	26. Leviathan
12. Agur	27. Behemoth
13. Uz	28. Daughters of Jerusalem
14. Wisdom	29. hebel
15. Theodicy	30. alphabetic acrostic

*III. Quotation From a Biblical Book: From a selection of significant OT passages and a list of OT book names, you must identify the book of the OT that contains each significant quotation. This section comes in the form of a matching question, no answers are used more than once, and there are no “red herring” entries. (The following are only examples of what could appear on the test.)

1. “My son, do not forget my teaching, but keep my commands in your heart.”
2. “Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers.”

*IV. Chapter Identification: In one sentence or less, identify the importance of each of the chapters of Scripture in the following list. Chapters linked with a hyphen are to be treated together.

Job 1-2, 28, 38-41

Psalms 2, 8, 16, 22, 23, 51,
90, 100, 110, 119, 150

Proverbs 4, 8, 31

Ecclesiastes 3, 11

Song of Solomon 2-3

V. Multiple Choice: From a series of possible correct answers, you are to select the correct answer. (The following is only an example of what could appear on the test.)

1. Practical wisdom is best reflected by the book of

- a. Job
- b. Proverbs
- c. Ecclesiastes
- d. Song of Songs
- e. All of the above
- f. None of the above
- g. Both a and b
- h. Both a and c

Note: Sections on the examination marked here with an asterisk will contain more questions than must be answered. For example, a section may contain 20 questions, but you will answer only 15, of your choice. The first 15 you answer will be graded.
