

WORKSHEET #4: Exodus 14-15
-----------------------------------

Read Exodus 14:1-31 and 15:1-18, 21. These two passages both tell of the Israelites' crossing of the Red Sea and God's miraculous deliverance from the Egyptians.

1. Match up the description of the events in chap. 15 with those in chap. 14. Do this carefully and in detail, in list or chart form. That is, show how the events described in chap. 15 fit in with those in chap. 14. (4 pts)
2. Are there any events or activities described in chap. 14 that are not found in chap. 15? If so, what are they? (4 pts)
3. Are there any events or activities described in chap. 15 that are not found in chap. 14? If so, what are they? (4 pts)
4. Are there any events found in both chapters, but written of from different perspectives? If so, what are they, and what are the different perspectives? (4 pts)
5. How do you account for the differences between the two chapters? (4 pts)
