

The New Testament & the Doctrine of the Promise

New Testament writers claim the Doctrine of the Promise identifies the means of Gentile salvation.

The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "ALL THE NATIONS WILL BE BLESSED IN YOU." So then those who are of faith are blessed with Abraham, the believer. ...in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we would receive the promise of the Spirit through faith....And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to promise. Gal 3:8-9, 14, 29
