

The New Testament & the Doctrine of the Promise

New Testament writers identify the Promise as the basis of the most prominent subject preached in the N.T.: The Kingdom of God / Kingdom of Heaven...

Now in those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Matt 3:1-2

From that time Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." ...Jesus was going throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people. Matt 4:17, 23

Jesus was going through all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness. Matt 9:35

And He said to [Mrs. Zebedee], "What do you wish?" She said to Him, "Command that in Your kingdom these two sons of mine may sit one on Your right and one on Your left." Matt 20:21

So when they had come together, they were asking Him, saying, "Lord, is it at this time You are restoring the kingdom to Israel?" Acts 1:6

and its King...

"Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him." Matt 2:2

“SAY TO THE DAUGHTER OF ZION,
‘BEHOLD YOUR KING IS COMING TO YOU,
GENTLE, AND MOUNTED ON A DONKEY,
EVEN ON A COLT, THE FOAL OF A BEAST OF BURDEN.’” Matt 21:5 citing Zechariah

Then the King will say to those on His right, “Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.” ...The King will answer and say to them, “Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.” Matt 25:34, 40
