

God Will Not Let Us Go

Mark D. Rhoads

NATHAN 6.6.67.6.67
Mark D. Rhoads, b. 1949

1. God will not let us go; we know this from the past.
2. God's word ex - plains the love that seals the bond of peace,
3. God's love will stand se - cure when war and vi - olence rage;
4. God's love will ne - ver fail, we trust from hour to hour;

God's love will far out - last our high - est ex - pec - ta - tion.
and of - fers full re - lease from con - flict's sad di - vi - sion.
when fire and flood en - gage in sweep - ing de - vas - ta - tion.
rest on - ly in it's power in all of life's tran - si - tion.

We've — seen it through the years, in — joys and
We — shrink from love's de - mands, but — God's pure Though — fear can hide the face, no — loss can Our — fu - ture is not clear, ex - cept that help-less tears: a stead - y con - firm - a - tion.

love ex - pands be - yond our com - pre - hen - sion.
test the grace of God, the Great Phy - si - cian.
God is near, and God will be our — vi - sion.