

"T.G.I.F."

"T.G.I.F." ordinarily means "Thank God, It's Friday!"-- A time when we smile, relax and look forward to a weekend break from work. But Good Friday is no "ordinary" Friday. It is the day we commemorate our Lord's death on the Cross. Let us acknowledge THIS day with holy awareness and heart-felt thanksgiving...

For it's Friday...and He is faithful! It's Friday...and He is forgiving! It's Friday...and He is my friend! I claim these promises all because of the Cross; all because on that momentous day in history He defeated sin, death and hell forevermore. Our Lord came face to face with His foe--and ours. He has "bruised the serpent's head" and He has become our conquering King! We can shout today, wherever we are and wherever we go:

"T.G.I.F." ... Thank God It's Finished!

What does that mean to ME this Good Friday? The finished work on Calvary frames the portrait of my life. And as I live within its boundaries, I am free! When Satan, the accuser of the brethren, rears his ugly head in my face, I can say, "Devil, it's Friday, and He is Faithful! It's Friday, and I am Forgiven! It's Friday and my Friend has set me Free! It's Friday--and it is Finished!

"T.G.I.F." ... Thank God It's Finished!
